

ENVIRONMENTAL POLICY

YUSHIRO MEXICO, we are an organization located in Silao, Guanajuato, dedicated to the manufacture and commercialization of lubricating oils and fluids for metallic cutting; Where we promote research for the development of new products that support the conservation of the environment through the reasonable and moderate use of natural resources. We are committed to complying with the legal, regulatory, customer and other interested parts that are pertinent, Based on the requirements of the ISO 14001 in its current version; In addition, we promote continuous improvement in environmental performance to prevent the environmental impacts that could be generated and the consciousness of good environmental practices that prevent pollution: We promote with our interested parts an environmental culture that favors the preservation of the environment. Establish a process-based approach to achieve the objectives.

Date: 09 May 2019

井上和男

President "Yushiro México S. A. DE C.V."

Kazuo Inoue